Going strong, growing fast.

We are the professional network for leaders engaged in the innovation and modernisation of public services. We are a growing community with a robust history.

Here's how we came to be:

IT professionals from different local authorities wanted to address common problems and solutions. They met to share their ideas.

More people wanted in on this great opportunity, so more were invited; more people, more ideas, more solutions. As the meetings grew larger, they turned into events, requiring a team to organise them.

1986 - we came to life!

As Socitm grew, so did the ideas. Now we offer membership options, develop partnership opportunities, produce research, provide knowledge, coach... and much more!

Our membership is open to a range of sectors
